

SESSION 5

Dealing with setbacks

What does a setback really do to you, and what can you do with it?

"I've missed more than 9,000 shots in my career. That's why I won."

Michael Jordan

EXERCISE: MY RESILIENCE CARD

Think about the hardest setback you've experienced as an athlete.

1. What was the setback? (brief)
2. How did you react at the time? (honestly)
3. What did you ultimately learn from it?
4. Would you erase it, or has it given you something?

Then write: "My hardest setback taught me that I..."

WRITE

1. The setback that shaped me most as an athlete is...

2. My first reaction to a setback is usually... (honestly)

3. One thing that always helps me get back up is...

BEFORE OUR CONVERSATION

- Think about someone you admire for how they handle setbacks. What do they do?
- Is there a setback you haven't really made peace with yet?

FREE REFLECTIONAFTER OUR CONVERSATION

- Which setback do I see differently after our conversation?
- What do I want to do differently the next time I face a setback?

⚡ MY ACTION: Write a letter to a future version of yourself who is having a hard time. What do you want to tell them?

My commitment:
