

COACH PRESENTATION

Our identity

Who are we as a team?

— GOAL OF THIS SESSION

You help the team form a shared identity. Players name values that matter to them and connect those values to their behavior on and off the court.

COACH NOTE

Ask open questions, do not give answers — you are the facilitator. Make sure every player speaks and note the most mentioned values. Pitfall: do not let one loud player dominate the discussion.

SESSION OVERVIEW

1

Check-in: one word

5 min

2

Our core values

15 min

3

Fill in the identity card

10 min

Check-in: one word

🕒 5 min · Exercise 1/3

Ask each player one word that describes them as an athlete. Write all words on the board and look for clusters.

Our core values

🕒 15 min • Exercise 2/3

In pairs, players choose three values they want to show as a team. Plenary: which come up most? Choose three to five team values together.

Fill in the identity card

🕒 10 min · Exercise 3/3

Players individually complete the identity card: as a team we are ..., we believe in ..., we choose to ...

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- ? Why did you choose these values?
- ? What does a player look like who lives these values every day?
- ? What changes if everyone does this?

CLOSING

Summarize the chosen team values on a large sheet. Tell the group: this is who we are, this becomes our foundation for the rest of the season.

CHARACTERFirst

“

"Culture is not just one aspect of the game, it is the game."

Lou Gerstner, CEO IBM