

My Role in the Team

Character First*GOALS MONTH 3

- You can name your current role(s) in the team with concrete examples
- You understand why role clarity contributes to team cohesion and personal motivation
- You formulate one concrete contribution you want to strengthen in the coming months

You don't have one role in a team. You have several, and they change. This worksheet helps you discover which roles you fulfill and which you want to develop.

EXERCISE 1 — ROLE COMPASS1 Role Compass

Give yourself a score from 0 to 10 for each of the four roles below. Color in the bars.

Leader

Gives direction, addresses the group

Score: ____/10

Engine

Gives energy, pulls the team along

Score: ____/10

Thinker

Analyzes, asks questions, finds solutions

Score: ____/10

Stable Force

Reliable, consistent, support for others

Score: ____/10

EXERCISE 2 — MY CONTRIBUTION2 My Top 3 Contributions This Month

No statistics. No points. Write three things you have contributed to the team in terms of behavior, attitude, or character.

1

2

3

EXERCISE 3 — ROLE CIRCLE REFLECTION3 After the Role Circle Exercise

After the group exercise: what surprised you? Which contribution from a teammate did you never expect?

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team."

Phil Jackson — 11x NBA Championship coach