

Leadership from Within

Character First*GOALS MONTH 7

- You recognize informal leadership in yourself and others without looking at official roles
- You deliberately take a leadership moment at least once a week in training or a match
- You actively invest in the development of a younger or newer teammate

Leadership is not about the captain's armband. Every player can lead at any moment through behavior, attitude, and words. You too.

EXERCISE 1 — WHO DO I FOLLOW?1 Informal Leaders in Our Team

Write two teammates you follow, not because they are captain, but because they radiate something. What do they concretely do that has influence?

Person 1 name:

What makes him or her influential?

Person 2 name:

What makes him or her influential?

EXERCISE 2 — MENTOR A YOUNGER PLAYER2 My Mentor Moment

Choose a younger player or new teammate. Spend at least 5 minutes with him or her once this month. Write what you wanted to share and how it went.

With whom?

What did I want to share?

How did that person respond?

EXERCISE 3 — THE FIRST VOICE3 My Leadership Moments

Write after each training or match: when were you the first voice? When did you take a leadership moment?

"I like pressure. It's a privilege to be in pressure situations."

LeBron James — 4x NBA Champion, Los Angeles Lakers