

SESSION 8 — MENTOR GUIDE

My Future

This is the closing session. Your role: let the athlete summarize the journey — not you. You affirm and celebrate.

SESSION GOAL

Close the journey by helping the athlete see their growth and feel a direction for the future. Say goodbye in a meaningful way.

CONVERSATION FLOW

OPENING (5 MIN)

""This is our last session. How does that feel for you?""

💡 Let the emotion be there. Closing is also letting go — for you and for the athlete.

LOOKING BACK (15 MIN)

""Thinking back on our eight sessions — which moment touched you most? What has changed the most?""

💡 Let the athlete summarize the journey. Listen actively, affirm.

LOOKING FORWARD (10 MIN)

""Who are you now that you weren't 8 sessions ago? What has changed?""

💡 Help the athlete name their own growth process — that anchors it.

CLOSING (5 MIN)

""What do you want me as your mentor to remember about you?""

💡 This gives the athlete the feeling they've left something valuable — for you too.

OBSERVE

- Does the athlete describe their growth in terms of performance or character?
- Is there something they want to say but haven't yet? (Ask about it.)
- How has the athlete changed across eight sessions in how they talk about themselves?
- Is there something you as a mentor want to share that you haven't said yet?

△ NOTE

Some athletes don't want the journey to end. Normalize: "Growth doesn't stop here. This journey is a beginning, not an end." Give a concrete referral or next step.

CLOSING

Give each athlete a personal moment: "What I see in you after eight sessions is..." — honest, specific, from your heart. This is the most powerful gift you can give as a mentor.
