

SESSION 8

My Future

When you look back on your life someday — what do you want to have seen?

"The best is always still ahead of you. But you decide where."

— Character First

EXERCISE: LETTER TO MY FUTURE SELF

Write a letter to yourself five years from now. Start like this:

"Dear [your name],

Looking back at the past five years, I am most proud of...

I have become the person who...

Sport has given me...

But the most important thing I learned about life is...

Thank you for believing in me.

With love,
[your name] (now)"

WRITE

1. Who do I want to be in 5 years — as an athlete, as a person, in relationships?

2. Which values from session 1 are still present in my life?

3. What do I never want to forget from this mentorship journey?

BEFORE OUR CONVERSATION

- Re-read your letter from session 2 ("letter to your 10-year-old self"). What has changed?
- What question do you want to ask your mentor that you haven't asked yet?

FREE REFLECTIONAFTER OUR CONVERSATION

- What do I take with me from the entire journey?
- What is the first step I take now that the journey is complete?

⚡ MY ACTION: Seal your letter to your future self in an envelope. Write "To be opened on [date + 5 years]" on it. Keep it in a special place.

My commitment:
